ISACHD Global Education Work Group (Chair Erwin Oechslin, MD Toronto, Canada) continues its work to develop the ACHD eLearning Center, lead by Gary Webb, MD (Cincinnati, USA). Work is being done to develop an ACHD basic teaching course and a repository for online ACHD education. This initiative fits nicely with the Global Health agenda to support the educational development of international ACHD programs.

The Global Research Work Group has initiated a new international multi-center study entitled Assessment of Patient-Reported Outcomes in Adults with Congenital Heart Disease - International Study (APPROACH-IS). The study design has been developed and is coordinated by Philip Moons, PhD, Koen Luyckx, Silke Apers, (Leuven, Belgium), and Adrienne Kovacs, PhD. The study utilizes a number of patient surveys to assess international differences in perceived health, psychosocial functioning, behavioral outcomes and quality of life. Sites interested in participating please contact Philip Moons. Several centers are on-board to begin recruiting patients.

ISACHD continues to move forward its agenda for improving ACHD Global Health, Global Education, and Global Research. Please join ISACHD, become a member and contribute to the work and the effort to improve ACHD care, education and research around the world.

Please visit our website at www.isachd.org to learn more about ISACHD, visit the journal watch page and find the latest ACHD publications, view upcoming conferences endorsed by ISACHD and register to become a member of ISACHD. Look forward to seeing you in Dallas,
Curt J Daniels, MD, President

From August 31 until September 4, the ESC congress was held in Amsterdam. More than 30.000 cardiologists came to visit the many lectures, but the best was the one on Wednesday morning: the joint ISACD-ESC session. Excellent talks were given by Helmut Baumgartner, Gruschen Veldtman, Ariane Marelli and Folkert Meijboom. Gary Webb could manage to have the speakers at their best! Please click on this link to see Erwin Oechslin disappear from the congress (after the session, of course!)

Thank you, Barbara for the great hospitality at the ESC 2013!

The ACHD community had a wonderful time at the ESC meeting 2013 in Amsterdam. We are very grateful to Dr. Barbara Mulder for her great hospitality: a reception at her home followed by a boat tour on Amsterdam's canals was the highlight after a very impressive concert the evening before. Dutch health care providers (cardiologists, nurses, technicians, etc.) and patients formed a professional orchestra and played a concert at the level of professional musicians. The talents and skills among the Dutch health care providers and patients just impressed me! The quality of the concert was beyond and above any expectations! The Amsterdam experience was spectacular!

An e-mail from website of the American Board of Internal Medicine, September 11, 2013

We are pleased to announce a new area of Certification: Adult Congenital Heart Disease, which is designed to recognize the qualifications of physicians who are specialists in the care of a wide range of adult patients with congenital heart disease.

The exam will be given to qualified ABIM diplomates, as well as those from the American Board of Pediatrics (ABP). ABIM will issue the certification to successful diplomates from both boards. You must hold current, valid ABIM or ABP certification in Cardiovascular Disease or Pediatric Cardiology, respectively, to be eligible for this examination.

We expect to administer the first exam in Fall 2015.

In early 2014, look to ABIM for more information about:

- Exam dates
- Exam blueprint content
- Eligibility
- Training and practice pathways
- Application process

For more information, read ABMS Announces Certification in New Subspecialty: Adult Congenital Heart Disease.

Questions? Call 1-800-441-ABIM (2246), Mon. - Fri., 8:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. ET, Sat., 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. ET, or send an e-mail

ACHD e-Learning Center

The ACHD e-Learning Centre is making progress! The Editorial Board of the ACHD e-Learning Center (Chair: Dr. Gary Webb, Cincinnati) has discussed the development and progress of the Website during Conference Calls. Dr. Gary Webb and the IT team in Cincinnati are working hard on the development of the Website. Beta testing will be available soon and I hope that we can go live before the American Heart Association meeting 2013.

Basic Teaching Course in ACHD: Dr. E. Pieper, Groningen (NL) is working hard to collect and to edit the presentations with Editorial Board members.

The ACHD e-Learning Center will be an e-hub for educational resources in ACHD!
